Eva Longoria gets a Cartier necklace from a handsome man - and it's not her husband

Who's a lucky girl? Desperate Housewives star Eva Longoria Parker received an expensive gift from pal Mario Lopez as the two lunched together in Hollywood.

With her basket ball star husband Tony Parker away on work duties, Eva, 33, joined Mario for an outdoor lunch at Café Med in LA.

Dancer and TV presenter Lopez turned up with a gold necklace in a Cartier bag for the already pampered Hollywood star.

Mario, an actor who was a finalist on the US version of Strictly Come Dancing, Dancing With The Stars, has been friends with Eva for some time.

An attentive Mario hopped out his seat to help Eva put the gold necklace on, and she seemed pretty pleased with the spontaneous gesture.

It looks as if the gift was in aid of Eva's new restaurant venture which had its VIP opening last night.

Eva attended the opening of restaurant Beso, which means 'kiss' in Spanish in Hollywood last night.

With husband Tony Parker away on basket-ball duties, Eva was supported in his absence by her Desperate Housewives co-stars Nicolette Sheridan and Felicity Huffman.

Best pals: Eva and Mario have been friends for some years, and she supported her actor pal when he appeared on dance show Dancing With The Stars
