Kalutara Hoteliers Association (KHA) recently held its annual dinner dance in grand style at the salubrious Blue Water Hotel, Talpitiya.

The event was attended by top hoteliers, heads and members of the regional and other hotel associations and some of those closely associated with the hospitality industry in Sri Lanka.

It was an evening of song and dance with bonhomie and camaraderie. Music for dancing was provided by Chandimal and the 2nd Connection with the guest spot occupied by redoubtable Sam the Man. Veteran keyboardist Chandimal and the boys, with their wide repertoire of perennial hits going back to the 60,70 and the 80's and some of the current chart toppers entertained hoteliers who danced till the wee hours. Sam the Man made his saxophone talk with lilting melodies much to the delight of the guests and his renditions of Louise 'Satchmo' Armstrong and maestro Clarence Wijewardane during the breaks was a treat to the ear
