

The right choice for evening wear

Glamour is generally more prominent in the evenings, and this is more so at cocktail parties and prestigious events.

The women, in particular, want to look their best at such occasions. Ruchira Silva, of Rebel, is mindful of such needs and spends her time creating, to make women feel good and glamorous when they step out in the evenings. Just recently, she displayed her evening wear collection at a fashion show.

In a chit-chat with "Scene Around", Ruchira said that short dresses are seen more at cocktails, while the long dresses take top billing at prestigious evening functions. The photographs here highlight Ruchira's creations for cocktails and evening wear.

Mail your articles and photographs to: avonxfactor@yahoo.com

The Glam Scene

Biyanka

Pix by Dimuthu Premaratne

Addicted to Facebook

Miss Derana for Miss World 2008, Adriana Corea, celebrates her 25th birthday on Friday, July 3rd. No plans for any major happenings, said Adriana, as she has a fashion show on the evening of July 3rd.

But after the fashion show, she and her pals plan to checkout some places for a little bit of birthday fun.

Adriana, by the way, is a huge fan of Facebook and whenever she is not flying for SriLankan Airlines, she spends her time glued to the computer.

"I'm really addicted to Facebook."

And she's got a huge fan base of Facebook Adriana followers.

Quite a few are awed by Adriana's photographs in Facebook.

Madushika Madumali, 17, who is studying in the U.A.E., told "Scene Around", that Adriana looks great and that she was surprised when the Sri Lankan beauty didn't stamp her mark at the international pageant last year.

Adriana Corea

Hollywood hair innovator

Hollywood's best kept secret will be revealed when Richard Farrell, an award winning hair replacement innovator from Hollywood, Los Angeles, arrives in Sri Lanka this Saturday.

He will be here to launch his exclusive franchise 'Richard Farrell' with his partner in Sri Lanka, Mr. Husain Patni, CEO, Trend has been residing in Sri Lanka for the past 13 years. He has a B.Sc in Chemistry, a MBA from the University of Lincoln, UK and executive education from the Harvard Business School.

Commenting on the need for this in Sri Lanka, Mr. Husain Patni said, "Hair loss is a huge issue here, as it not only affects the older generation but young men and women as well.

This affects one's confidence and attitude in facing life. However, with our advanced hair care solution, we are able to give them back a full head of hair. This is the most innovative, non-invasive and ultra custom made procedure, where the results are truly dramatic. He went on to say that Trendz will give those experiencing the devastating effects of hair loss, be it cosmetic or for those suffering from Alopecia and Cancer, the chance to change their lives."

Husain Patni

The Hair Replacement system is virtually undetectable to both sight and touch and is produced with the highest quality of hair

The new look

Another prestigious award

Kiran Atapattu has won practically all the major awards in the business field. But accolades still continue to come his way.

Just recently, he was presented with the Most Outstanding Sri Lankan Award for 2009.

The recognition was for Entrepreneurship & Business Management, and he received this prestigious award from Lion Mahendra Amarasuriya, Immediate Past President.

Kiran is the Chairman of Colombo Engineering Enterprises and the company has had awesome success in the shipping field.

Being a man of good taste (he is also known as a fashion icon in the business industry), Kiran had a suit very specially designed and created for the awards presentation ceremony.

It was a glossy bright white outfit, of Italian material, plus a designer-wear shirt, and accessories to match.

Scene set for Pizzas and Doughnuts

There's going to be promotions galore at the Galle Face Hotel during the month of July.

Just a couple of weeks ago the hotel enticed the public with a tempting promotion for Eclairs and Submarines.

And now the scene is set for Pizzas and Doughnuts - at the Pasticcino.

From July 1st till the 31st, and from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. you could make your choice - from Jumbo Doughnuts, with fillings of sugar, strawberry, nougatine, chocolate and coffee, to Pizzas, in styles of vegetarian, devilled chicken seafood - from Rs. 275/- upwards.

There's also a special Combo offer of one Doughnut, one Pizza and two iced coffees for Rs. 600/-.

And if you want to talk business at lunch, the best place to do it, they say, is at The 1864 - the Fine Dining Restaurant and Wine Cellar at the Galle Face Hotel.

A complimentary meeting room is also available.

The Daily Business Lunch is from 12 noon to 3 p.m., and a four-course meal, in 45 minutes, is all yours for Rs. 1550/-.

Oh, by the way, the Eclairs and Submarines promotion has moved from Colombo to Kandy - and it's now happening at the Queens Hotel, from July 1st till the 31st.

One foot Eclairis, with yummy fillings of vanilla, strawberry, chocolate, fruit cocktail and raspberry, would cost you Rs. 150/-.

Submarines, in styles of vegetarian, chili chicken and tuna fish is priced at Rs. 225/- upwards.

follicles possible. The hair is assessed for the colour density and its gravity shift so that the end result is as natural as possible.

One of the truly unique things about the system is its flexibility. After the procedure is complete, you are able to style your hair in any manner, shower, shampoo, swim or ever go to the beach without having to worry.

So if you have dreamed about having a natural head of hair, then a smile is certainly in order.